Description:

The St. Anne Catholic School Extended Care Program provides a safe environment for our students both before and after school. Students participate in scheduled activities including homework time, computer time, games, art, and free play. Students in afternoon extended care receive a healthy snack every day.

Application Process:

Students must be enrolled in Extended Care. Students who stay without being enrolled will be charged the weekly rate plus $5 per day. This additional fee is put in place to encourage enrollment so that the Extended Care staff can plan for snacks and activities.

Policies:

Students must be picked up by 6:00 p.m. A fee of $15 minute time increment will be charged for picking up after 6:00 p.m. If a student has not been picked up by 7:00 p.m., the Memphis Police Department and appropriate human services division will be notified.
