LAY CARMELITE NEWS:

A charism is a gift from God to the Church for the world. The charism of each religious family is the particular way its members are called to follow Christ. The charisms have many elements in common. In Christ we all serve, pray, learn, and participate in the sacraments. However, our Catholic faith offers us a huge buffet of variety in how to do each of these things. It is the emphasis placed on each of these elements and the way in which they are done that gives each religious family its charism.

Lay Carmelites share in the charism of the Carmelite Order which has been shaped by the Rule of St. Albert and the experiences of Carmelites through the ages. Most importantly, the Carmelite charism is a way of following Christ with total dedication. Carmelites, including lay members of the Order, do this by forming communities at the service of God's people. Community, service and contemplation are essential elements for all Carmelites.

The St. Anne Lay Carmelites meet the second Saturday of each month in the Joachim Center at Noon. for more information call 901-830-7824.
